CONSTITUTION OF THE MINECRAFT CLUB OF AMERICA

PREAMBLE We, the Members of the Minecraft Club of America, united as builders, explorers, and visionaries from schools and communities across the nation, do solemnly establish this Constitution to forge a stronger, more purposeful club. In our shared digital world, we are bound by a commitment to justice, fairness, and equal opportunity, ensuring that every member has the chance to thrive, learn, and express their creativity. Recognizing that the landscapes we shape reflect the values we hold, we pledge to uphold the principles of leadership, cooperation, and mutual respect. Through this foundational charter, we secure not only the freedom to build but also the right to be heard, the duty to act with integrity, and the lasting responsibility to guide future generations of players within our community with vision and courage.

[Left Blank Intentionally]

CONSTITUTION OF THE MINECRAFT CLUB OF AMERICA

ARTICLE I: THE WORLD CONGRESS

Section 1: Legislative Powers All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a World Congress of the Minecraft Club of America.

Section 2: Composition and Election

The World Congress shall consist of Representatives appointed or elected by the players of each recognized nation within the MCA.
Each nation shall have representation proportional to its active population, with the formula for determining the number of Representatives to be established by law.
The method of selecting Representatives shall be determined by each nation's internal laws and customs.
Representatives shall serve for a term of one month, after which new selections shall be made.
The World Congress shall choose their Speaker and other Officers.
Each approved server beyond the main Java Modded Server shall have representation in the World Congress.

Section 3: Powers of the World Congress The World Congress shall have power:

To establish and maintain server-wide rules and regulations;
To regulate commerce among the various nations;
To establish building codes and zoning laws for spawn areas only;
To declare war between nations, in accordance with the Outlines of War;
To levy taxes on in-game resources for public works;
To recognize new nations and territories;
To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers.

Section 4: Limitations The World Congress shall not:

Interfere with the internal governance of established nations;
Impose building codes or zoning laws within sovereign nation territories;
Override national laws that do not conflict with this Constitution.

CONSTITUTION OF THE MINECRAFT CLUB OF AMERICA

ARTICLE II: THE ADMINISTRATIVE BRANCH

Section 1: Executive Power The executive power shall be vested in a National President of the Minecraft Club of America. The National President shall hold office for a minimum term of one year.

Section 2: Council of Presidents

The Administrative Branch shall include the National President and all Club Presidents.
Club Presidents represent individual schools or local chapters, not nations.
This Council of Presidents shall meet regularly to discuss matters of server-wide importance and implementation of rules at the local level.
The National President shall hold mandatory monthly meetings with all Club Presidents to ensure coordination between local chapters and the central administration.

Section 3: Powers of the National President The National President shall:

Serve as Commander in Chief during server-wide events;
Enforce the laws passed by the World Congress;
Appoint Judges to the World Court, with the advice and consent of the World Congress;
Hold the power to veto legislation from the World Congress, which may be overridden by a two-thirds vote;
Represent the server to external Minecraft communities;
Address the public and World Congress/Court four times a year: a. Beginning of School Year Address b. Winter or New Year Address c. End of School Year Address d. Summer Address
Maintain the state of the server and clubs across the operating district;
Inform the public on decisions regarding future servers and updates;
Approve the creation of any servers beyond the main Java Modded Server.

Section 4: Powers of Club Presidents Each Club President shall:

Represent and govern their respective school or local chapter for a minimum term of one year;
Enforce server-wide rules at the local level;
Facilitate participation of local members in MCA activities;

Appoint officers as needed to maintain order;
Coordinate with the National President on local implementation of policies.

CONSTITUTION OF THE MINECRAFT CLUB OF AMERICA

ARTICLE III: THE WORLD COURT

Section 1: Judicial Power The judicial power of the MCA shall be vested in one World Court and in such inferior courts as the World Congress may establish.

Section 2: Composition

The World Court shall consist of one Justice appointed from each recognized nation within the MCA.
Each nation, regardless of size, shall have equal representation on the World Court.
Justices shall be nominated by their respective nations according to that nation's laws and customs.
The National President shall formally appoint nominated Justices with the advice and consent of the World Congress.
Justices shall serve for a term of two months, with the possibility of reappointment.
Each approved server beyond the main Java Modded Server shall have representation on the World Court.

Section 3: Jurisdiction The World Court shall have jurisdiction:

In all cases of dispute between nations;
In cases involving violations of server rules;
In matters concerning the interpretation of this Constitution;
In all matters of impeachment.

Section 4: Due Process All members shall have the right to due process when accused of wrongdoing, including:

The right to a fair trial before the World Court;
The right to present evidence in their defense;
The right to representation; or being represented by another player;
The right to appeal decisions to the full World Court.

Section 5: Exceptions to Due Process and Administrative Detention

(a): Due process rights may be suspended for immediate administrative action in cases where Article VII, Section 2 (Anti-Bullying and Discrimination) has been violated.

(b): The Administrative Branch is hereby authorized to place members suspected of violating server laws or the Constitution under Administrative Hold (detainment) if there is a reasonable belief that their continued presence poses a threat to server stability, the economy, or the integrity of evidence.

(c): Any individual placed under Administrative Hold must be granted a proceeding before the World Court within 72 hours of the initial detainment. If a trial does not commence within this timeframe, the individual must be released pending their future court date.

CONSTITUTION OF THE MINECRAFT CLUB OF AMERICA

ARTICLE IV: OBJECTIVES AND EDUCATION

Section 1: Club Objectives The Minecraft Club of America exists to promote learning in:

History, through lessons given by the national and club president to their undersigned clubs;
Politics, through the governance system outlined in this Constitution;
Geography, through world-building and cartography;
Economy, through resource management and trade;
Civics, through participation in democratic processes;
Leadership, through service in elected and appointed positions;
Creative expression, through building and design.

Section 2: Educational Activities The MCA shall regularly organize:

Building competitions to promote creativity;
Elections and debates;
Historical recreations and role-playing;
Resource management challenges;
Diplomatic summits between nations.

[Left Blank Intentionally]

CONSTITUTION OF THE MINECRAFT CLUB OF AMERICA

ARTICLE V: NATIONS AND SOVEREIGNTY

Section 1: Right to Form Nations

All members reserve the right to create a nation within the MCA.
Nations are sovereign entities distinct from local clubs or schools.
New nations must be recognized by the National President to receive full rights and privileges.
Each approved server beyond the main Java Modded Server shall have representation in the World Court.

Section 2: National Sovereignty

Nations shall maintain sovereignty over their territories.
Each nation may create and maintain its own rules within its territory.
Nations must carry out justice within their own territory in accordance with their laws.
National laws must not conflict with this Constitution.

[Left Blank Intentionally]

CONSTITUTION OF THE MINECRAFT CLUB OF AMERICA

ARTICLE VI: WARFARE AND CONFLICT

Section 1: Right to Warfare All nations within the MCA have the right to declare and wage war against other consenting nations.

Section 2: Outlines of War All warfare must adhere to the following regulations:

All members participating in war must be online during hostilities;
No excessive damages to builds or infrastructure shall be permitted;
Terms of surrender and peace must be respected;
The World Court retains jurisdiction over war crimes and violations of these regulations;
Non-participating nations must be respected as neutral parties.

Section 3: Restrictions

Warfare shall not involve the destruction of critical server infrastructure;
Griefing under the pretense of warfare is prohibited;
The Administrative Branch may suspend warfare privileges for nations that repeatedly violate the Outlines of War.

CONSTITUTION OF THE MINECRAFT CLUB OF AMERICA

[Left Blank Intentionally]

ARTICLE VII: RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Section 1: Member Rights All members of the MCA shall enjoy:

Freedom of building and expression within zoned areas;
Right to form or join a nation of their choosing;
Right to participate in democratic processes;
Right to utilize server resources in accordance with regulations;
Right to due process as outlined in Article III. Section 2: Anti-Bullying and Discrimination
There shall be ZERO TOLERANCE for bullying, harassment, or discrimination of any kind.
Violations of this section shall result in immediate administrative action, including possible expulsion from the server.
This provision supersedes all due process rights in Article III. Section 3: Member Responsibilities All members shall:
Respect the creations and property of other players;
Participate in server governance and activities;
Contribute to community projects;
Abide by all server rules and regulations;
Report violations of this Constitution to the appropriate authority.

[Left Blank Intentionally]

CONSTITUTION OF THE MINECRAFT CLUB OF AMERICA

ARTICLE VIII: CHECKS AND BALANCES

Section 1: Oversight of the National President

The National President shall be subject to impeachment by the World Congress for violations of this Constitution, with trials conducted by the World Court.
The National President's vetoes may be overridden by a two-thirds vote of the World Congress.
The National President's appointments to the World Court require confirmation by the World Congress.

Section 2: Oversight of the World Congress

The World Court may declare laws passed by the World Congress unconstitutional.
The National President may veto legislation passed by the World Congress.
Nations maintain sovereignty over internal affairs as specified in Article V.
The World Congress shall publish all proceedings publicly for review by the citizenry.

Section 3: Oversight of the World Court

Justices of the World Court may be impeached by the World Congress for misconduct.
Constitutional amendments may change or clarify the jurisdiction of the World Court.
The World Court must publish written opinions explaining the rationale for all decisions.

Section 4: Emergency Powers

Emergency powers may only be granted to any branch by a three-fourths vote of the World Congress.
Emergency powers must expire after a defined period, not to exceed one month.
Extension of emergency powers requires another three-fourths vote.

CONSTITUTION OF THE MINECRAFT CLUB OF AMERICA

[Left Blank Intentionally]

ARTICLE IX: AMENDMENTS

Section 1: Proposal Amendments to this Constitution may be proposed by:

A two-thirds vote of the World Congress;
A petition signed by at least half of all active members.

Section 2: Ratification Proposed amendments shall become valid when ratified by three-fourths of all nations through their respective governing bodies.

ARTICLE X: RATIFICATION The ratification of three-fourths of the existing nations shall be sufficient for the establishment of this Constitution between the nations so ratifying the same.

DONE in Convention by the Unanimous Consent of the Members present this May 13th in the Year Two Thousand Twenty-Five.

IN WITNESS whereof We have freely signed our Names: